THE GAZETTE.

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 20.

CHICAGO, in 1830, was a fur station, with only four white inhabitants! In 1834, when the town had nearly 2,000 inhabitants, the male population turned out to kill a bear, and before their return had shot forty wolves. The place was a great rendezvous for savages until to the Mississippi. It seemed almost uninhabitable by white men, being for the greater part of the time under water and knee-deep in mud, a God-forsaken spot, repulsive to every human sense. Yet so great were the advantages offered for trade by its location that now, after the lapse of only thirty two years, it has a population of 250,000; a passenger or railway train reaches or leaves the city every fifteen minutes of the twenty-four hours; nearly 1,000 vessels, employing 10,000 sailors, ply between it and other lake ports. It exported last year over 53,000,000 bushels of grain. Its flour mills produce about 1,000 barrels of flour

every working day; in the season of three months it has converted 904,649 hogs into

pork; receives and sends away about 1,000

cattle each working day, and sold last year

614,000,000 feet of lumber. Meantime, the city has been lifted bodily out of the quagmire,

and made as handsome as it is flourishing.

The lake has been tunnelled for pure water,

and the river is to be tunnelled for railways.

Improvements of all kinds are projected on the grandest scale, and the city promises to become one of the handsomest in the world.

HATS IN MADAGASCAR .- The Queen of Madagascar is said to have issued a terrible proclamation, forbidding civilians to wear hats with brims. Government officers, of the Malgache type, are alone allowed to retain the old-fashioned head-piece. The poorer citizens continue seven rooms, in a good location, and situated on to wear their old hats—simply proving their a paved street. It must also be supplied with loyalty by tearing off the brim.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relatio..s and friends, loss or money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursne, and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. THE GREAT TOMATO,-Maupass' Supe-1 rior Tomato, in point of flavour, productiveness and perfection of shape, has no equal, It is of a deep red color, in form it is round slightly flattened, and without crease or wrinkle. It is of medium size, and the flesh almost as solid as a beef steak. In proof of its solidity it may be stated that without being extraordinary large, the average weight is from nine to twelve onnees. One bushel will make as much catsup or fill as many cans as 2 bushels of the ordinary kind, and in point of flavour it is unapproachable. As an evidence of the superiority of these tomatoes for marketing purposes they commanded ready sale at $2 per bushel, when others were offered at $1.
